The new fence around the courthouse yard will cost at least $400. That would pay for a lot of pasture for the cows on whose account it has to be built.

LOST—A fox terrier with brown markings. Answers to the name of "Gad." Finder will please return to "Valley Home," Arcadia, and receive reward.

Services at the Presbyterian church on next Sunday. Sunday School 9:30 A. M. Sermons at 11 A. M. and at 8 P. M. Everybody is cordially invited to come.

Last Thursday evening was the first genuine ice-cream evening that the Presbyterian ladies have had since they commenced serving ice cream early in the season.

To Sergeant W. W. Reese, stationed at Jackson Barracks, New Orleans, the editor is indebted for a very fine cavalry hat. We return our very sincere thanks.

There are all kinds of inquiries from St. Louis people who would like to spend the summer in the Valley. Unfortunately, though, we have no accommodations to offer them.

Rev. L. C. Warner's new residence on the Convent grounds in Arcadia is just about completed and our good friend has just about as commodious and desirable a home as there is in the Valley.

We do not believe that there are better kept grounds nor a lovelier spot in all the state than at the Arcadia College. The trees and shrubbery are superb and the grounds a veritable paradise.

The twenty-five boys from the Y. M. C. A. camp attended the Presbyterian church in a body Sunday morning and asked the pastor, Rev. Mr. Accomb to preach at the camp at Pilot Knob in the afternoon.

It is to be regretted that some one with the capital and enterprise cannot be induced to build some residences in Ironton. They are badly needed here and would yield good interest on the money invested.

The Baptist folk report a very pleasant day at their picnic at Iron Mountain last Thursday. Good delegations were in attendance from the schools at Bismarck and Bellevue and all seemed to enjoy themselves immensely.

Judge Fort says that he has run the gamblers out of every county in his district except Butler and that he is going to drive them out of there too, even if he has to summon a special grand jury every term of court.

LOST—At Graniteville, June 23d, a brown pocket-book, containing a watch and some money. If found please leave at the office or store at the quarry and receive reward; or return to Mrs. H. W. Krehner, Ironton, Mo.

Chief Deputy U. S. Marshall was here Wednesday last week with Frank Reeves and Thomas David, two Butler county men, who will serve thirty days in the Ironton jail for selling whiskey without paying the government tax.

A number of cows have died in the Valley recently from some unknown cause. Apparently in the best of health, they are suddenly attacked and in an hour or two die. None of the local veterinarians seem able to diagnose the disease.

The Children's Day exercises at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning were well attended the building filled to almost its full capacity. The carefully prepared programme was well carried out, the little folks acquitting themselves with credit.

Charles Amburn, a Crawford county boot-legger, was arraigned before the U. S. Commissioner here last Wednesday charged with violating Uncle Sam's revenue laws. The defendant pleaded guilty and was taken to the district court, St. Louis, for trial.

The June festival at Graniteville on Tuesday night of last week was a very pleasant affair, indeed. The attendance was good and the dance went gaily on from early eve until the dawn of another day. The patronage was liberal and the net proceeds amounted to quite a neat sum.

The ladies will give an entertainment in the Academy of Music, Friday evening, July 3d, for the benefit of the rectory fund of the Episcopal church. A comedy sketch will be followed by the serving of ice cream, cake, etc. Admission, 25 cents. All are cordially invited.

Last Monday W. T. & G. R. Gay disposed of their stock of lumber to John T. Baldwin who will remove the same to the lots adjacent to his residence where he will conduct a general lumber business. Mr. Baldwin is negotiating with John Newman for a tract of land east of his residence.

DIED—In the Cove, Monday, June 15, 1903, Mrs. Maggie Mathas, wife of Little Mathas, age 24 years. The deceased leaves a husband, two sisters and three brothers and many friends to mourn her loss. The remains were laid to rest in the Cove cemetery, Tuesday evening, June 16, 1903.

Last Saturday night a week ago a couple of horses belonging to J. Stricklin at Red Point, this county, were ridden about twenty miles east and then turned loose on the road. Stricklin was close in pursuit and this probably explains why the thieves abandoned the horses and went to the woods.

FOR SALE—The Harvielle property in Arcadia, consisting of large, modern brick residence and all necessary out-buildings—all in good condition. Fine water on place; 17 1/2 acres of ground. This property is nicely located, and I will sacrifice the above at $3,900 for a quick sale. Address:

DR. C. P. HARVILLE,

F. W. Prentice of Hillsdale, Michigan, is in town looking after the screen factory. We understand he is negotiating with the Big Muddy Coal & Iron Company for the tract of land where Helen's stove factory is now located. Mr. Prentice wants to build a new factory on the land. A Mr. Cain of Michigan, who will have charge of the factory next season, is with Mr. Prentice.

In the report of a late meeting of the St. Louis clerics to consider the appointment for Missions the following appears: "The Rev. T. A. Waterman and Dr. Winchester took the position that if the Bishops would teach and advocate the Scriptural mode of teaching, there would be no difficulty in raising money for missions. The denominations are succeeding on these lines and putting the church to shame."

Rev. W. S. Accomb and family arrived last Friday from their former home in Ohio. On account of the waters their household goods were delayed in transit and have not yet been located but the members here thoughtfully furnished the house with their own goods until Mr. Accomb can locate his property. And when Mr. Accomb and family arrived Friday evening some of the lady members of the church had secured a supply of provisions and had supper already for them.

W. W. Nall and wife of St. Louis, who have been pleasant guests of Mrs. Charles Quayle, returned to their home Sunday. Mr. Nall is Chief Deputy United States Marshall of Missouri and has the honor of being in office five administrations having been appointed by Grover Cleveland. He is a shrewd reliable and fearless officer, always doing his duty. Mr. Nall took a young man to the reform school at Booneville and made a visit to our city upon his return. He has many warm admirers in the city.—Moberly Daily Monitor.

Over at Cape Girardeau things are warming up in a religious-social way. A Lutheran pastor has printed a pamphlet in which he alleges that lodges are devilish institutions. The Republican then jumped upon the reverend with all four feet. The Democrat jumped upon the Republican, and now the Progress is expected to jump upon the Democrat. The pastor says lodge men are heathens, the Republican intimates that the pastor is a liar, and the Democrat swears that the Republican man is—and there you have it.—Caruthersville Democrat.

The rock crusher which was put to work on the Old Mines road last week finished the job before it there on Monday, and has ground up a goodly pile of stone to be used in road improvement. It is stated that the crusher has a capacity of eighty tons per day, and to keep it going steady requires a force of eight or ten men. The cost of operating the machine is said to be in the neighborhood of $30 per day. This may appear excessive; yet it is not, considering that it furnishes crushed rock at less than fifty cents a ton.—Potosi Journal.

A sergeant and two privates from the rifle range drank a bottle of beer on Main street Sunday and then went tearing down the street at a most terrific speed. As they rounded the corner at Whitworth's they used vile and indecent language to a couple of strangers standing on the pavement. It was an outrage and the offenders should be arrested and punished. Let the officials do their duty. Those fellows at the range should be given to learn, once and for all time, that they must behave themselves when in this town. If they don't behave we will make them behave.

James Van Nort, of Bellevue, this county, has recently secured a patent on an invention, the purpose of which is to illustrate the position and movements of the earth and moon with regard to the sun, and consists of three globes, which are so arranged that an instructor can, with one hand, illustrate to a class the shape of these three bodies; the rotation of the earth upon its axis, which causes day and night, the revolution of the earth around the sun in its inclined position, which causes the four seasons; and also the movements of the moon, which causes its different phases.

Prof. Allen Moore, President of the Chillicothe Normal School at Chillicothe, Mo., and one of the best known educators in the state, writes the "editor" as follows:

"I understand that Prof. O. J. Buford is conducting a summer school for teachers in your town, and I wish to express my appreciation of his ability and congratulate those in attendance upon the opportunity afforded them of being under the instruction of one so earnest, faithful and competent as Prof. O. J. Buford.

Respectfully,

ALLEN MOORE."

I am in receipt of a copy of St. Mark's Messenger, a paper issued by the church at Palatka, Florida, Rev. F. H. Kieley in charge. All the members of St. Paul's will be gratified to hear that Mr. Kieley is getting along all right in the Land of Flowers and that charge is in prosperous condition, as is partly evidenced by the number of baptisms and confirmations for June. Financially, also, the church there is in trim, and the attendance at services "very good." By the way, Mrs. R. is not mentioned, which I consider hardly just; for the influence for good of so excellent a woman is sure to be second to not even that of the rector.

The Daughters of Rebekah gave a picnic and ball at Annapolis last Saturday which it was my good fortune to attend. The "Budweiser" orchestra from Ironton furnished music for the day and evening. A large crowd was in attendance and the sum netted was about $42—to be used in the purchase of chairs for the Annapolis I. O. O. F. hall. To Mrs. Benson and Mr. Mast great credit is due for the success attending the affair. The day passed pleasantly, except for one disturbance of which I shall speak more freely hereafter. The good people of that town should provide themselves with an officer to keep the peace on such occasions.

Sheriff Polk Wednesday of last week received a telephone message from George Moore at Mineral Point saying that the day before a couple of gray horses had been stolen from him and that he thought the thieves were coming this way. On inquiring the Sheriff ascertained that a couple of horses owned by Helen's stove factory had been driven through Graniteville the day before and he and constable Marshall at once started on the trail of the fugitives. They rode two days in the west end of the county but could get no tidings of the missing horses. After leaving Graniteville there was no trace, whatever, of them and the Sheriff thinking further pursuit useless came home Thursday night.

Sam Shy of Sabula and Will McGlothlin, Drew Loyd and Erastus Wells of Annapolis were arrested a couple of weeks ago charged with destroying several panels of fence on the farm of John Crowley at Des Arc. The boys, it seems, had all been down to Des Arc to hear the famous dog trial a couple of weeks ago and their sympathies were with the plaintiff. John Crowley was a juror in the former trial and had prevented a verdict in favor of the plaintiff. These boys, to show their disapproval, destroyed his fence. The suit was originally brought before Squire Johnson in Des Arc and a change of venue taken to Annapolis. When the case was called there one day last week it was dismissed because of some error in the transcript.

The board of directors of the electric railway company was unable to raise the $47,000 necessary to pay off all indebtedness and put this end of the road in operation, but took bonds to the amount of $31,000, which was sufficient to pay off the lien against the property and prevent the appointment of a receiver in the U. S. Circuit Court in St. Louis on Monday. On Friday of last week it was thought that local aid would be procured, and that enough bonds would be sold to put the road in operation, but a hitch occurred and nothing was done. A. A. Doughty of Mine La Motte was in Farmington the latter part of last week and made a proposition to the company, but it was not accepted. Hon. E. A. Rozier was in St. Louis Saturday and had the receivership proceedings dismissed in the U. S. Circuit Court. At a meeting of the board of directors on Monday night the order for cars and rolling stock was countermanded. The railway will continue to lie idle until something can be done in a financial way.—Farmington Times.

One day last week a man giving his name as Vaughn drove into Pilot Knob and traded one of two horses he was driving to J. D. Moore, the livery man there. Vaughn receiving $15 foot. He then traded his wagon to E. Ebraecht for a poorer wagon receiving some boot. Vaughn then left town. Tuesday a man by the name of Midway, who lives in the west end of the county, came into Pilot Knob and declared that the horse Moore had traded for had been borrowed from one of his relatives and he had come to see what had happened to the horse. He said that the man who had disposed of the horse was named Riggs. He had lived in the west end of the county for about a year and a half. He had borrowed the horse, borrowed a wagon and with an old horse of his own had contracted to haul a load of eggs to Iron Mountain for D. Curton, a merchant at Red Point. Riggs sold the eggs at retail at Graniteville, traded his borrowed horse and wagon at Pilot Knob. From Pilot Knob he was traced to Elvins and Farmington, where he sold the horse he got from Moore, the wagon he got from Ebraecht and his own horse. From there all trace of Riggs is lost and the people who loaned and traded with him, and the man whose eggs he sold are anxious to know of his whereabouts.

A deal was consummated last Thursday by which the Clark Manufacturing Company, the Baldwin hub factory and Gay & Kindell's store passed into the control of a new corporation, to be known as the Clark & Baldwin Manufacturing Company. The capital stock of the company is $47,000 paid up. The stockholders are E. C. Clark,

W. T. Gay, R. W. Gay, Geo. R. Gay, T. T. Baldwin, J. R. Baldwin, Fred. Kindell, Sr., Fred. Kindell, Jr., J. L. Baldwin, and J. Hummell of Ironton, and James M. Logan of Bellevue. The board of directors are W. T. Gay, R. W. Gay, E. C. Clark, J. R. Baldwin, W. T. Gay, president; J. R. Baldwin, vice-president; R. W. Gay, secretary and treasurer. The company will operate the Clark hub factories here and at Lesterville and the Baldwin factory at Ironton and the Gay & Kindell store. T. T. Baldwin will be general superintendent with J. R. Baldwin as assistant. Geo. R. Gay will be manager of the Clark hub factory. Fred. Kindell, Jr., will be in charge of the store under management of W. T. Gay. The company will assume charge of the various plants July 1st. Capt. Clark will remain here for a month or more until the new company gets affairs to running smoothly, when he will depart for Wisconsin, where he will in future reside.

Arcadia College Commencement.

The Twenty-Sixth Annual Commencement exercises of Arcadia College were held last Monday afternoon. The large recreation hall was filled to its utmost capacity by parents and friends of the pupils as well as visitors who esteem the good Sisters and wish well to this most excellent institution. The programme was long but not tiring to the audience, and I do not remember to have ever known time to fly more quickly. Every number was interesting and pleasing, and I cannot say a good thing for one without justly enumerating every one. I confess that when the first essay was announced I summoned all the patience at my command to endure an expected perfunctory and platitudinous—but an agreeable surprise awaited us all, not only in this but the three that followed in their course. All were filled with beautiful thought and graced with elegant expression. I congratulate the fair essayists in that their efforts were worthy far older and therefore supposedly wiser heads. May their every aspiration see fulfillment, their every hope end in fruition! The music, too, was remarkably good, showing soul with execution and grace with technique. The plaudits that succeeded each selection were fully deserved. The number by the college orchestra, though difficult of rendition, was given without a "break" and so smoothly that few of the hearers suspected the training and time necessary to its accomplishment. The smaller pupils had their parts to play and may well be proud of the manner in which they played them. Children off the stage never played more naturally or apparently with greater enjoyment.

At the conclusion of the programme, the Rev. Father Huber crowned the graduates and awarded the prizes. A short address by Father Hoog, of Jefferson City, concluded the exercises. Following is a list of the awards: Graduating medals for virtue and learning awarded to Miss Pauline Weinsberg, of St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Alice L. Barnett, of Poplar Bluff, Mo.; Miss Gertrude M. Smith, of Texarkana, Texas; Miss Florence M. Gay, of St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Clara A. Holt-schneider, of Jefferson City, Mo. For having honorably completed the Fifth Grade, or Teacher's Course, in Instrumental music as prescribed by the Arcadia College, and having passed a satisfactory examination, a diploma awarded to Miss Pauline J. Weinsberg, of St. Louis, Mo., and to Miss Edith A. Boss, of Bismarck, Mo. Prize of excellence, gold medal for amiability, lady-like deportment and scholarship awarded to Miss Nellie Hough.

For exemplary conduct, a gold crown awarded to the Misses Elizabeth Aveline, Adèle Maubach, Cecelia Aveline, Mamie Harmony, Genevieve Wallace, Marietta Perry, Mary Mathews and Lucy Kenner. For good conduct, second premium, a silver crown, awarded to the Misses Agnes DeLisle, Ada Dorris, Attie Blaine, Dora Dorris, Annie Newbauer and Ethel Collins. Gold medal for Christian Doctrine, donated by Mrs. Margaret E. Taylor, of St. Louis, Mo., awarded to Miss Genevieve Wallace. Gold medal for vocal music, Miss Irene Danby. Gold medal for instrumental music, Miss Gladys Gray. Gold medal for Scholarship in the Ninth Grade, donated by Mrs. Fenelon Briscoe, of Noonan, Mo., awarded to Miss Agnes DeLisle. Gold medal for stenography, donated by the Rt. Rev. J. J. Hennessy, D. D., Bishop of Wichita, awarded to Miss Kathleen Mullany. Gold medal for instrumental music, Miss Agnes Hanick. Gold medal for stenography, Miss Georgia Riley. Gold medal for book-keeping, Miss Zulab Sawyer. Gold ring for Scholarship in Eighth Grade, Miss Attie Blaine. Gold medal for Scholarship in Seventh Grade, Miss Mary Gummertsbach. Gold ring for music, Miss Marian B. Search.

For having honorably completed the course in stenography, a diploma is awarded to the Misses Elizabeth and Cecelia Aveline, of Silvertown, Colo., and Miss Lesette Elliott, of Hidalgo, Mexico.

Obituary.

Died at her residence near Ironton, Mo., Thursday, June 18, 1903, Mrs. Mary Sutton, wife of Mr. Franklin Sutton, aged 41 years. Born in Ireland April 29, 1862. She was converted and baptized here in the Cove Baptist church some six years ago and lived a devoted Christian's life up to her death. She leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Payne, of the Silver Mines, her husband, five children and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

To her were born seven children, two daughters and five sons, two sons have preceded her, one some twelve years ago and the other just three days before. Just a few moments before she passed away she called the family to her bedside and requested her husband to take the greatest care of the dear little children, and to join the church and meet her in heaven. To the little children who were so dear to her she requested to be kind to one another and to other people and meet her in heaven. To her parents she requested they join the church and be baptized and meet her in heaven. And then her spirit took flight to heavenly shores. About two days before her death she called her husband to her bedside, saying, "Dear husband, I can not be with you much longer." Then pointing up, said, "Can't you see those little angels?" Mrs. Sutton was loved by all who met her or knew her. O, what a solemn thought it is when we see our friends gathered around the grave of a dear friend, that some day we will be disposed of in a like manner.

The funeral services were held at the family residence and conducted by Rev. J. W. Smith of this vicinity. The remains were laid away in its final resting place in the family cemetery Friday evening at 3 o'clock, June 19, 1903.

W. HENSON.
